Public Input:

Daniel Chaplin attended to ask what was the status of the board's discussions concerning the recent music festival held by his neighbor, Josh Seidman. Chris told Daniel that the board was looking into the process of creating a noise ordinance.

Stew Clark came to the meeting to express his appreciation for the Town's approach in creating the budget. In an earlier meeting, Stew expressed some concern about the budgeting process but said that after he examined the town report more closely, he felt that the Town had done a good job in the process.
